Child Evangelism Fellowship® of Maine, Inc.

Dear Friend,

We are so thankful for the privilege of ministering to children. January and February are both great months here at Camp Good News®. Our weekends are filled up with campers and staff ready to hear and take in the Word of God.

What a tremendous opportunity we have to feed boys and girls the “bread of life.” Campers arrive late Friday afternoon, and leave mid-afternoon on Sunday. Throughout the weekend, they gather five times in front of the fireplace for singing, prayer and a message from God’s Word. I have the responsibility of teaching during those “fireside chats.” I cannot think of anything I would rather be doing than teaching children the Word of God here at Camp Good News.

Counselors teach during cabin devotions, our kitchen crew serves great meals throughout the weekend. Our program staff supervises sledding, skating, and snowshoeing, along with other great activities. One of the kids favorites is “Mission Impossible” played outdoors on Saturday night.

Kids learn of our Lord Jesus, they partake of good food, they make new friends and they do so in a wonderful environment, filled with staff who love our Lord, and love those kids also.

I cannot adequately express that great thanksgiving in my heart and felt by all of our staff, for the goodness of God in allowing us to serve children here in this place. We thank God for all of you, who by your prayers and your generosity have been used of God to make this possible.

Thank you for so faithfully and generously doing your part in this work of reaching children. The impact you are having on campers and staff alike is absolutely thrilling. When the “wood, hay and stubble” of this earth is consumed, that precious work done in the hearts of children will last forever.

Thank you and may our God and Savior bless you abundantly.

‘Til Every Child Knows,

John Romano
