Child Evangelism Fellowship® of Maine, Inc.

Dear Friends,

The beginning of a new year also means the beginning of winter retreats here at Camp Good News® and Blueberry Mountain. I enjoy having camp full once again - of children, teens and staff. I love seeing God at work in lives as our Lord Jesus is proclaimed to all who will hear. I especially appreciate the privilege of being the Bible teacher here at Camp Good News throughout our winter retreats.

This year I will be teaching on the attributes of God, helping children and staff learn of our awesome God, and His provision for our salvation, and for our daily needs. I always get excited with the opportunity of teaching those wonderful truths from God's Word that will help children grow strong in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. We need to evangelize, and we need to make disciples, and there is no better place to start than with our children.

Please pray with us and for us, that God would do a mighty work in the hearts of campers and staff alike. Our winter camps are Bible based, with five chapels each weekend, along with cabin devotions. It is a great opportunity to see God work by His Spirit, through His Word.

When you combine all of that teaching with loads of fun, good food and great fellowship, it makes for great winter retreats. And this year we have plenty of snow.

I share all of that with you, simply because, without you, the ministry would not be taking place. Your gifts and your prayers are absolutely essential. We are a team reaching children for Christ, and training those children to walk with the Lord.

All of us thank you, and thank God for you. And we wish you a very blessed new year.

'Til Every Child Knows,

John Romano
