Child Evangelism Fellowship® of Maine, Inc.

Dear Friend,

I am looking forward to Thanksgiving this year. My wife Ronna and I are in a new home. In August of this year, we traded in our mobile home for a new double-wide. In that same month my parents sold their home and moved in with us. All of us are thankful of God's provision, and we are looking forward to sharing Thanksgiving day together as a family.

There is so much to be thankful for. Earlier this fall I was in one of our little Maine churches to speak about ministry to children. There were a good number of children in the church that morning. They were all kids that had recently come to know our Lord as their own Savior from sin. Through the testimony of those children that little church has had the privilege of seeing two sets of parents also come to know the Lord. It was my great joy to minister to those new believers on that Sunday morning. This is fruit that also "abounds to your account."

Scripture says that "...there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents" (Luke 15:10). I hope that it's also your joy in knowing that it's through your gifts and your prayers that the message of the gospel is being proclaimed to children all over Maine.

I am thankful that our God has entrusted this ministry to us. Please pray with us, that we would be faithful messengers, faithful ambassadors, faithful servants, fulfilling His call upon our lives individually and collectively. The task is great, but He is able. Thank you, and God bless you.

'Til Every Child Knows,

John Romano
